

Timbersport chops its notch in events calendar

Organizers aim to make this the summertime equivalent of the sled dog derby

by Jerry Grozelle

Could the Timbersport Festival become as big an attraction for Minden as the Sled Dog Derby?

If the organizers have their way, it's only a matter of time.

The Minden Timbersport Festival currently offers the biggest purse for an event of its kind in Canada with a top prize of $300 in each of the 10 events.

Although the machinery of the organizing committee didn't get rolling until a few weeks ago, this year's festival promises to be bigger and better than the first event last year. A few added features, like the pancake breakfast, the dance and an exhibit of antique logging tools, are a good indication of the desire to improve the event with age. CHAY-FM will be doing live remotes from the event all day as well.

On May 26 Dale Merrill approached the municipality asking for its help and support. Merrill told Council that there was some concern that sponsorship for some events was lacking. The committee needed 10 sponsors and that goal was a long way from being reached. One week later, an even dozen sponsors had stepped forward, ensuring an ample supply of prize money and a large measure of relief for the organizing committee.

The newly formed Minden Area Business Association got involved about five or six weeks ago when it wasn't clear whether the event would get off the ground. About 10 people offered their assistance and that number has since doubled.

"The community involvement has been great," Merrill said. "The response is positive. There is a lot of enthusiasm and everyone is actively helping."

Fire burns lid off pot farm

by Carol Moffatt

A house fire in Stanhope last week resulted in a drug seizure when fire fighters stumbled across a marijuana cultivation operation.

Arrest warrants were issued for two tenants of the rented house after police seized more than 200 plants, about 10 ounces of ready-to-use marijuana and a variety of indoor cultivation equipment as well as a loaded 12-gauge pump-action shotgun.

"It's not a huge growing operation, but certainly would be lucrative," said Minden OPP Detective Dave MacMartin during the seizure.

Two calls were received about the Tuesday noontime blaze in a rented house on Highway 118, east of the 25th Line. Fire fighters arrived to find heavy smoke billowing from the eaves and vents of both floors of the house.

After entering the locked house and extinguishing several small fires, firefighters began working their way through the building in a search for a man neighbours suggested may have been in the house.

Several large marijuana plants were found on the ground floor when the door to a back porch was kicked in; the hydroponic system was discovered in a bedroom after a blocked-off door to the second floor was knocked down.

"It was all smokey and we couldn't see our way around, but somebody said there was a door there. It was all boarded up and we kept kicking it until it opened," said fire fighter Shaun Perrin.

Officers Dave MacMartin and Steve Adam uprooted the "mother" plant discovered when Stanhope Fire fighters stumbled across a marijuana cultivation operation.

"I went up and looked first in one bedroom and there was nothing there and then in the second bedroom was this four-foot-high pot plant," he said.

At the same time, a woman arrived on the scene and told fire fighters her dog was in the house. The dog was discovered in a first floor bathroom, carried from the house by a fire fighter, and immediately taken away by the woman who claimed to be taking the animal to a veterinarian. When Perrin got back out to report what he had found, the woman and the dog were gone.

"That all happened while we were inside. By the time we found the plants and went back out, the dog had been found and she was gone," said Perrin.

Police obtained a search warrant for the house later that afternoon. Among the items seized were several indoor light systems and homemade two-tiered stands, timers, extensive potting items, fans, scales, fertilizer and a calendar listing planting, watering and harvesting details. Many of the planting trays and pots had dates on the sides. Police say the seedlings were all cuttings off one large plant called a "mother" which could easily yield a pound of pot itself.

"This is a small operation but pretty organized. If all these plants were allowed to mature and be cultivated, the potential value here is about $180,000. This mother plant is pretty old but it looks like they were just getting started here" said Sgt. Adam, assessing the seedling trays.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Nicola Cole, 31, and David Cadogan, 31 on the charge of cultivation of narcotics. Other charges are pending. The cause of the fire has been listed as electrical.

Suspects in custody

Roger K. Oake, the suspect in the robbery of the Haliburton branch of the Bank of Montreal is in jail in Lindsay.

United States authorities turned Oake over to Minden OPP Detective Constable Al Bibby and Sergeant Steve Adam Friday in Niagara Falls. He was transported to Lindsay, where he is scheduled to appear in court today (Monday).

Bibby explained that Oake was arrested on misdemeanor charges in Niagara Falls, New York and that those charges were dropped on the condition that he waive extradition procedures, which he did.

Kurt Jennerich is also in custody.

Jennerich, 27, formerly of the Wilberforce area, has been the subject of a manhunt since May 17. He failed to report to his parole officer the day he was released from Joyceville Penitentiary and he is the suspect in 30 or more break-ins in the Wilberforce area.

A Canada-wide warrant was issued for his arrest and he was picked up by officers from the Metro Toronto 32 Division.

Jennerich is being held in Toronto, but he is expected to be transferred to lock-up in Lindsay soon.

A date for his appearance in Provincial Court in Lindsay, to answer the charges, has yet to be set.

A kindred spirit

A large audience at Ridgewood Public School was treated to a wonderful performance of the musical Anne of Green Gables. Rachel Wires played Anne with tremendous animation and sang with a clear, pleasant voice. Other outstanding solos were performed by Kara Fogwell, Amber Norman and Amanda Mantell. The entire production was staged on a professional-looking set and the elaborate costumes added to the look and feel of the play. Harvey Rainbow directed "Anne" while Debbie Fogwell was the musical director. Numerous other staff, students and parents contributed in many ways to this successful endeavour.

It's been a long time since students filled the seats in the old schoolhouse on Brady Lake, but SS #9 in Stanhope isn't yet ready for retirement.

The schoolhouse was hauled out of the bush that had grown up around it and towed into Minden to become a part of the ever-growing heritage village.

Bill Simmerson, who 10 years ago moved the Sterling Bank to its location next to the library, was also involved in this move. He and his crew cleared about 15 large trees to make a path out of the bush, loaded the school onto Tom Prentice's truck and hauled it out along the Scotch Line Road.

Although the school has sat neglected for many years, at its site on the east side of Brady Lake Road (in the former village of Hindon Hill), it is still in very good shape. The roof is said to be in perfect condition and the tongue and groove pine ceiling is undamaged.

About a dozen members of the Minden Museum committee stood out in the cold and rain Wednesday morning waiting for the arrival of the Hindon Hill Schoolhouse. Most were amazed at the good condition of the building. It looked much better once it was removed from all the overgrowth.

The two-hour move to the new site went off without a hitch. However, the original school sign which had been stored inside the building didn't make the trip. Apparently, someone entered the schoolhouse a few days earlier and made off with the sign.

Committee members are asking whoever took the sign to return it to the schoolhouse, where it can be repaired and rehung.

Above: The Hindon Hill Schoolhouse enjoyed a trouble-free ride aboard Tom Prentice's truck early Wednesday morning.

Left: This photo was provided by Mrs. Windover. It shows what the schoolhouse looked like before it was abandoned. Museum Committee members will be striving to restore the building to its original condition.

It was a musical night to remember and a noteworthy way to inaugurate the new gymnasium at Archie Stouffer Elementary School. The event was Brasserama, held Tuesday May 31 and featuring a variety of brass ensembles from elementary school students through to seasoned veterans. Among the featured performers was Brass Quintessence, a group of five university age students who are making their mark on the Canadian chamber music scene. The group featured above, the Highland Brass Quintet, includes, from the left, Don Wright, John Stouffer, Walter Barnes, Glen Carter and Craig Saunders. Barnes and Carter, both music teachers, were instrumental in organizing Brasserama. This was the first time the new double gymnasium at the Archie Stouffer School had been used for a musical event. The consensus following the evening's performances was that the facility is ideally suited, acoustically, for such an event.

Residents plan to fight Lutterworth rezoning

Some residents of the Black Lake Road area are not pleased with the outcome of a public council meeting on May 26.

The meeting was held for Lutterworth residents who wished to air their views on the rezoning of property owned by Paul Pilon.

The property is currently zoned as part residential, but mostly industrial. Pilon is selling the property to small engine repairman, Doug Thompson, who wants it all zoned industrial.

After reading letters from local residents, council decided to allow the rezoning to proceed, giving a green light to the small engines repair shop as well as a boat storage area. Once Thompson takes over, he plans to construct a new building to store his materials.

Mary Jane Irwin, Lutterworth Township Clerk Treasurer, said the Ministry of Transportation and the Ministry of Natural Resources both indicated they had no objection to the rezoning.

The Ministry of Environment had been advised about the rezoning meeting, but had not responded. "Mr. Thompson has no intention of damaging the environment," said Irwin.

But residents are still concerned. Some predict when the business starts there will be more traffic on the road which may cause more accidents. Residents are also concerned about the noise level from the machines in the shop.

The residents have said they will continue to press their objections and may ask for an OMB hearing.

Students scrambling for jobs

Employment Centre helps students hone job hunting skills

by Kelly Pettinger

The race is on for the thousands of Ontario students who are seeking employment. For many it is the only chance they'll get to earn money to help cover rising tuition costs at post secondary institutions.

So far, the Ontario government appears to be winning. But there is hope. The employment centre is helping students find summer jobs that could lead, in some cases, to full-time employment.

The Employment Centre in Haliburton has been open for 18 years, helping those looking for work. It wasn't until 1988, however that the centre noticed a dramatic increase in its summer registry files. Today high school and college students are not looking for jobs to cover the cost of summer entertainment, they want money to pay for schooling.

The Ontario government is giving out fewer grants and loans forcing students to find other ways to pay for an education. Colleges with two-year programs are filling rapidly because students can't afford three or four years of school.

The Canada Employment Centre assists people who are unemployed and looking for work. The counsellors help those who are looking for a new career, offer tips on finding a new job, provide employment counselling and even training. But their main goal is to help people find employment relating to their skills or educational training.

"When people register we have them complete an information profile," says Jane Selbie, manager of the employment centre. "This tells us what type of work they are looking for, other work experiences and their education level. That gives us a basis with which to start."

At the end of April the centre had 58 students registered. Selbie expects there will be between 75 and 100 students on file by the beginning of summer, as soon as the high school semester is over.

"We have a full gamut of age groups. The first to apply are the post secondary students because they are available earlier," said Selbie. "Generally we work on a basis where the student must be 14 years of age to work, but it tends to be the older students who come in looking for employment."

Currently the minimum hourly wages are $6.25 for students under 18 years of age, and $6.70 for those over 18. Working a regular week at the minimum rate will not generate enough income to pay for a full year's post-secondary tuition. As a result, some students attempt to find more than one job. Unfortunately the number of full-time summer jobs is limited and so landing a second one is highly unlikely.

"It seems like employers are a bit cautious right now. They are lining people up for work, but they are seeing how the season is going to go first," said Selbie.

But students should recognize that the centre is not the only avenue to consider when looking for work. "There are a lot of jobs out there which aren't advertised. Talk to friends, and family and go out and market yourself and see whether you can find something on your own," advises Selbie. "Resumes are good. They are helpful because some local employers may not have application forms."

Selbie says there seem to be more jobs for those wanting to be involved in working with children.

"There certainly has been extra funding for child initiatives lately, but that just might be happening at this moment; but it may not necessarily be a long-term trend," said Selbie.

"There seems to be a mixture of jobs. If the job seekers have specialized skills they may need to be a little more creative in their search to find a position.

In these cases the student may have to accept employment in a related field or be satisfied with one that has little or nothing to do with their training or skills.

"Today's market requires job seekers to be versatile. They may not find the exact job they are looking for, but in every employment situation there are skills that will be learned which will be of value in the future. And, while they're working, they can be watching for openings in their field of interest," said Selbie.

As a result, high school students are being advised to maintain a solid core of basic subjects. The core subjects give students versatility in job selection and do not limit post-secondary education options.

"We had an RNA (Registered Nursing Assistant) program that just started last week and lots of people wanted to enrol, but many didn't keep up with their sciences and they couldn't be accepted," said Selbie.

The community colleges have developed specific hands-on types of trade skills courses that can focus specifically on certain market sectors. Selbie says the opportunities are equal for both university and college students.

"The tradition of colleges is to prepare students for positions in the work force where the demand is high or there are labour shortages. The colleges have advisory boards from industry and the community, who are constantly assessing the needs," she said.

Getting a summer job is not an easy task. With a large number of students looking for work, the market is competitive. And while there are jobs to be had, they tend to be filled quickly at this time of the year.

One final tip from Selbie, "Check our job board at the employment office on a regular basis. It doesn't take long for a job posting to be filled."

September's crop of grade nine students went through a novel orientation process last week with the help of the high school's Peer Tutors.

High school inductees taste HHSS hospitality

It was a cross between boot camp and playing detective.

Grade eight students from all over Haliburton County travelled to HHSS for a high school orientation. They were searching for a murderer, sitting on balloons until they popped, skipping and running around with linked arms.

The orientation was planned by OAC students involved in the Peer Tutor program, a program designed to help younger students with their studies. The day was organized by Kerry Brezina and Craig Harding as a part of their Independent Study. Other peer tutors were there to help out with the 160 students.

It sounds hectic but Brezina and Harding were happy with the outcome of the whole experience. "It worked out better than I thought it would. It's not as crazy as I had expected. With about 160 kids there's a lot that could go wrong, but it's turned out really good," said Harding.

Laura Willis, the Guidance counselor in charge of the peer tutoring program, was also happy with the results. "It's been great. The kids are great. The tutors are making it fun. At first they are a little bit sheepish about the whole thing, trying to be cool in front of the younger ones," she said.

"They've had past orientations, but they just basically got a tour of the school and it was boring for them. This way we've made it fun," said Harding.

The project was worth 20 per cent of the peer tutors' final mark. I'm sure they were more than happy when they found out they received a perfect mark.

Timbersport

When the idea was first suggested, there were those who thought it was "undo-able"; that it was destined for failure.

The doubters have been proven wrong again as the Minden Timbersport Festival prepares for its second annual appearance on our Main Street.

Those who had reservation should have been a bit more cautious in their pessimism. More than a decade ago, the idea of holding a sled dog race down the main street of this community seemed to be an equally ludicrous dream. Need we say more?

The Timbersport Festival is an event which could put this community on the map in the same way as the Sled Dog Derby has made Minden the focus of attention for one weekend each winter. Not only does the Timbersport Festival offer something new for spectators to see, it meshes neatly with the heritage of the area. After all, it wasn't that many decades ago that each spring the Gull River rang with the sound of log drives. And while the significance of logging to the local economy may have diminished, there still are many in the Minden area who rely on the harvest of trees for a portion of their livelihood.

The Timbersport Festival is a natural for Minden in so many ways. Hopefully, with the kind of support other events in this community have enjoyed, it too can become a fixture on the schedule of summer activities.

Thanks

It is difficult to believe that 15 years have passed since we became a part of this community through our ownership of this publication. However, a careful examination of the traditional signs, the thinning hair with its increased grey component, the infants who have grown into young adults and the friends we have made along the way, will reveal that, yes, it has been a decade and a half.

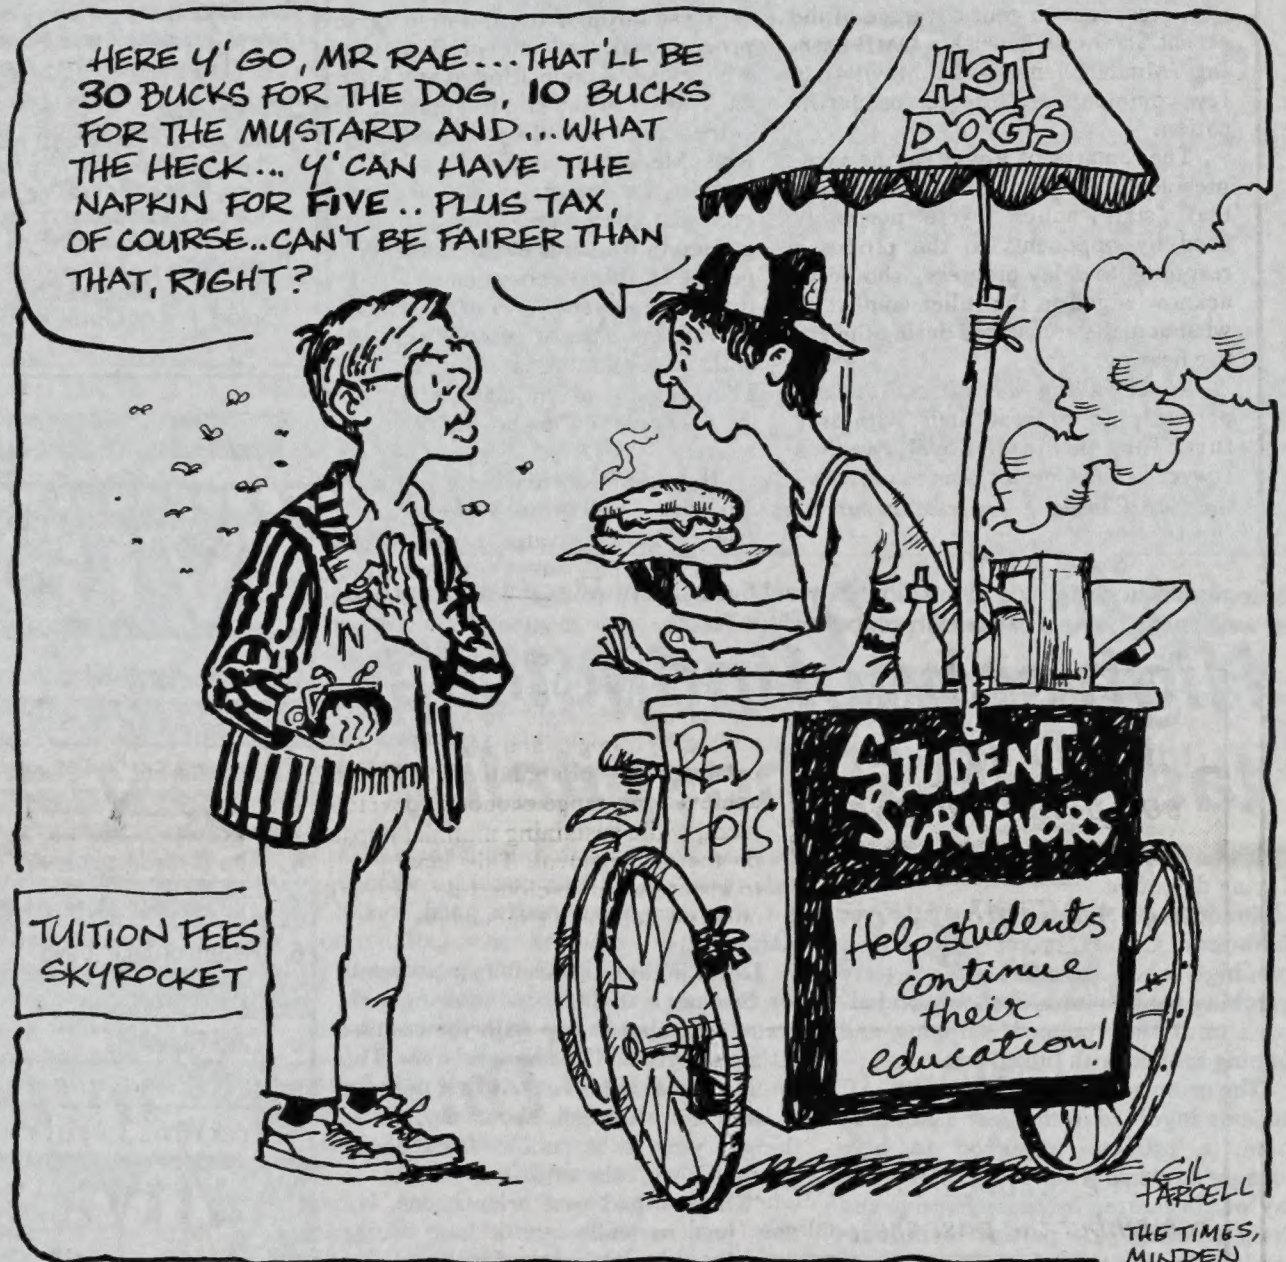

We believe that if a community newspaper is doing its job, even though the ownership may rest with an individual or corporation, it in fact belongs to the community it serves. The relationship between reader, advertiser and the newspaper becomes very personal. As we have learned over the years, that personal attachment is reflected in any number of ways...in the pride individuals show in "our little paper", in the loyalty which seems to withstand any test, and the caring about what we do (and don't do) and how well we do our job.

We are humbled by the trust you have placed in us. It spurs us on to provide you with an even better publication. Thank you for letting us grow with the community over the past 15 years.

Laurels to Snowdon, Darts to editor

Editor,

I believe your Darts and Laurels editorial on May 30 was completely unfair to the council and staff of Snowdon Township. I hope the report I've heard that you're running for reeve of Snowdon is untrue; otherwise it's a misues of your position to attack the present council on very flimsy grounds.

Percentage increases in taxes say nothing about taxation levels. When I purchased my home in Snowdon I was told that if it had been across the road in another township, my taxes would have been a great deal higher. I have since found this to be true.

Snowdon has little expensive lakeshore assessment to raise taxes on, has been left with some very difficult roads to maintain, has not raised taxes to provide the elegant accommodation of many other township offices. My road is well graded and dust controlled, the dump service is adequate.

How about some laurels for all councils and councillors who are working very hard under near impossible conditions to provide required services as economically as possible. Snowdon does not deserve your darts.

Dave Valentine

Note: The report is true; I intend to run for Reeve of Snowdon Township. In spite of this fact, a 12 per cent tax increase, cuts to landfill services, a lack of any reserve funds and the inability to access grants deserve editorial comment. I don't consider brief comment on this to be an abuse of my position as editor of The Times.

Russ Duhaime, Editor.

Awesome group not stalling on Stanhope quarry bid

Editor,

In response to your coverage of the recent Stanhope Township OMB hearing (Minden Times - 24 May/94), a few comments are offered for clarification.

The remarks of Royel Paving vice-president, Clayton Ellis, suggesting that "stall tactics" were purposely used by opponents to the proposed rezoning, to delay progress, should be acknowledged in the fuller context of what actually transpired during the entire hearing.

Royel Paving was offered the opportunity to present their witnesses first. They declined. Royel Paving's lawyer Lorne Chester, was required by the OMB hearing process to submit full disclosure of both witnesses and testimonies by March 31/94. They disclosed nothing, leaving the Totally Awesome lawyers to believe that two days would be ample time to resolve the issue.

I sat through the duration of this process and was one of five people who spoke in opposition to any further excavation of the site in question. The evidence presented by hydrogeologist Roy McArthur and Professor Orie Loucks, an internationally acclaimed biologist with an extensive background in wetlands evaluation and expertise in forest ecosystem classification/management, confirmed the prevailing sense of ecological vulnerability to additional encroachment. Their expert testimonies consolidated the concerns of the appellants as being entirely justifiable.

It became increasingly clear that the case for continued aggregate extraction held no water, if the integrity of the wetland system surrounding the proposed pit extension was to be preserved and protected.

Hopefully, when the dust finally settles on this issue, coolheadedness, clarity and foresight, so aptly demonstrated by Loucks and McArthur, will catalyse a collaborative effort to achieve long-range economic development, while sustaining minimal impact on the environment. This should help to ensure an auspicious future for all; one in which justice indeed prevails.

Dan, Dan, he's our man

Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.

George Santayana.

You know the scariest thing I know about Americans? They forget so easily.

A quarter of a century ago, Richard Milhous Nixon stood exposed to the world as a foul-mouthed crook and a liar — the only president in the history of the republic to be hounded from office by the threat of impeachment.

A couple of months ago, five presidents — for ex- and one serving — stood solemnly at attention while the same man was buried with a Marine Guard band and all the pomp and ceremony Washington could muster. Magically, the blue-jowled troll of Watergate had been transformed into a Great Statesman.

A decade ago, a renegade Colonel by the name of Oliver North stood exposed as a traitor who had broken the law and betrayed his country in secret negotiations with Iranian terrorists.

You can probably catch the same Oliver North on your television tonight, smiling and waving as he campaigns for a seat in the United States Senate.

And then there's J. Danforth Quayle. You remember Dan — the smile-button Veep in the Bush administration? The politician with the verve and elan of a sock puppet? Sure you do.

But Americans don't.

I don't see how they could, because the same Dan Quayle is currently on a 36-city tour promoting his book, Standing Firm. It's supposed to be an autobiography, but insiders say it's more of a stepping stone towards Nice folks, the Yanks. But terribly forgetful.

Black'n White

by Arthur Black

Quayle's next objective: the Oval Office.

Well, why not? Quayle's still good looking. He knows where the washrooms are in the White House.

And he could use a full-time job.

Is it possible that Americans could have forgotten what a fumble-tongued disaster Quayle was as a vice-president?

It's possible. And so, as a public service we present a reprise of some of J. Danforth Quayle's more profound observations:

Greenpeace Dan

"The best thing about rain forests is that they never suffer from any drought."

It isn't pollution that's harming the environment. It's the impurities in the air and water that are doing it."

Flexible Dan

"I believe we are on an irreversible trend toward more freedom and democracy. But that could change."

New Math Dan

One word sums up probably the responsibility of any vice president, and that one word is 'to be prepared.' "

Philosopher Dan

"If we do not succeed, then we run the risk of failure."

"The real question for 1988 is whether we're going to go forward to tomorrow or past to the — to the back!"

Spaceman Dan

"Mars is essentially in the same orbit . . . somewhat the same distance from the sun, which is important. We have seen pictures where there are canals, we believe, and water. If there is water, that means there is oxygen. If oxygen, that means we can breathe."

All quotes certified true and accurate. Remember Canada, the author of these bon mots (Quay-ludes, perhaps?) has aspirations to become leader of the western world.

You can help prevent this.

Do you have friends in the States? Then clip this column out and send it to them — preferably just prior to the next presidential election in '96.

Nice folks, the Yanks. But terribly forgetful.

SPOT 97

Brian Shaw and partner Jack Saunders have moved their sporting goods business, Spot 97 Sport & Fitness, to the former IGA building on Minden's Main Street. For the past five years the building has been used as a temporary location for primary classes from Archie Stouffer Elementary School. The building, with its large open spaces and big windows, provide an ideal location for the business. Separate exercise and equipment rooms have also been included in the new layout. While the sports store and exercise rooms are now open, construction continues on the installation of three batting cages and a nine hole mini-golf course at the back of the building. And, to top it all off Terry and Shelly Crowe will be operating an ice cream outlet at the back of the sporting goods store.

CURRY MOTORS

Gasoline service was interrupted this past week for several days at the ESSO gas bar at Curry Motors in Haliburton. In response to government legislation which requires that all underground gasoline storage tanks of a certain vintage be replaced, the power shovels moved in and did their thing. Andy Salvatori said everything was up and running by the end of last week.

SUBWAY

The Minden outlet of Subway Sandwiches and Salads should open for business this week. The last time we peeked in, the workmen were feverishly putting the finishing touches on the colourful interior and completing work on the sign at the front. Owners Jerry and Kim Campbell, have been carrying out the renovation work at the Highway 35 location (in the former General Lee Chicken building) for the past month or more. Watch for further announcements.

KEITH JACKSON REAL ESTATE

Since we all live very close to the bush, even for those of us who live "in town", the danger of forest fires is an ever present concern. So it is with interest we note the addition of a forest fire danger rating sign on the front lawn of Keith Jackson Real Estate on Haliburton's Main Street. The sign will help keep everyone posted on how dry conditions are in the bush and will serve as a constant reminder to visitors and residents alike to take care when travelling through the bush.

COUNTY SIGN & DISPLAY

Another new enterprise is open in Minden. Jon Hill has opened a second business next to his successful Minden Live Bait and Tackle outlet. The new business, County Sign and Display, uses computer technology to cut signs from plastic material. With computer technology, the design possibilities are endless, incorporating a wide variety of type styles, logos and colours. The new sign business and the bait and tackle shop are located at the Mills Auction Centre, corner of Highway 35 and 121 in Minden.

MINI-BREAK

Last Christmas we (Jack and Pat) were fortunate to win a weekend for two at PineStone Resort and Conference Centre. The contest and prize were sponsored by Pat and Nick O'Beirn of Under Cover Books in Haliburton. Anyone making a purchase at their store was eligible. Well, almost six months after the prize was awarded, we took advantage of our good fortune. We thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality at PineStone including our more than comfortable chalet overlooking the eighteenth fairway, the delicious cuisine of the Heatherwood Dining Room and the Gallery Dining Room, and the many recreational facilities. The highlight of the weekend, however, was the opportunity to just get away from it all for a little while and relax....and not have to be concerned about the long drive home. Thanks to everyone for a great break.

The goal is to have a year-round committee so preparations can get under way months in advance of the event instead of the five or six weeks they had to make it happen this year.

Expansion is the goal for the future. If the organizers can make Timbersport the summer equivalent to the winter's Sled Dog Derby, they will achieve their goals.

Bill Deba is happy that the event was so successful last year and plans for the future of Timbersport in Minden are bright.

Deba is an executive member of the Timbersport Association. As a teacher at Sir Sandford Fleming College in Lindsay, he has also been the coach of Fleming's woodsmen team, which has successfully competed in events from the Maritimes to Ontario and into the United States.

As proud as he is of the Fleming team's accomplishments, he says the Minden Timbersports Festival is "not just for college wood choppers."

"It will attract 20 to 30 world-class competitors from a very serious circuit," Deba said.

He expects some SSFC graduates. But there will likely also be professionals -- competitors like David Jewitt of Pittsford, New York.

Jewitt spends the spring and summer months traveling North America competing in timbersport events. When the season slows down on this side of the world, he heads down under to Australia and New Zealand where timbersports events are as popular as they are in the U.S. and Canada.

Most of the competitors will come from southern Ontario, Quebec and New York State this year, Deba predicts. But as the event gains a reputation, the drawing area will expand.

Bantam A Royals whip Bobcaygeon

by Jerry Grozelle

The Minden Handyman bantam A Royals have won three of their first five games of the season.

This past Thursday the Royals went to Beaverton, beating their hosts 9-2.

Wayne Henderson of the Minden team's coaching staff said that they got some great pitching, great defensive play and timely hits to earn the victory.

The two teams got five innings played before the curfew. Minden started off slowly but built to a five-run finale in the fifth frame.

The game was scoreless after the first inning and tied at 1-1 after two. The Royals added two more to the visitors' side of the scoreboard in the third and one more in the fourth before the Beaverton boys notched their second run of the game in the home half of the fourth. The five-run fifth frame was more than the Royals needed.

With the bases loaded in the fifth, Minden's Ryan Anderson hit a double for a pair of RBIs.

Steve Ecclestone hit a single and walked, scoring two runs.

Dwight Bryant scored two runs, one of which was when he stole home. He also contributed with a double.

Anderson hit a double and crossed the plate twice.

Matt Cheeseman scored a run after hitting a bunt single. Jamie Henderson hit a double and scored a run and Sheamus Donnery added a run to the winning tally.

Cheeseman recorded the pitching win, going four innings. Chris Neilson took over for the fifth, retiring the side.

Dwight Bryant made some good running catches at centre field.

Three days earlier, the Royals were in Lindsay, where they dumped the host squad 14-3.

Ryan Anderson pitched the first three innings, striking out three and allowing just one hit. Darren Mills had a brief turn on the mound before Chris Neilson took over for the rest of the game.

The game in Minden on May 29 saw a tough Cannington team hand the Royals their second loss of the season, by a 7-4 count.

The first loss was an 8-7 heartbreaker in Bobcaygeon on May 22. Minden scored early in that one but Bobcaygeon rebounded for the win.

A two-run homer by Darren Mills was the highlight of Minden's first game of the season. That game ended in a 10-8 win for the Royals in Little Britain.

The bantam A team played yesterday in Minden against Lindsay. They will be going to Fenelon Falls for a game tonight (Monday) at 6:30 and the next home game will be Sunday, June 12 against Little Britain. Game time is 10 a.m.

Full Swing:

The Minden ball diamonds are packed with action seven nights a week now that baseball season is back in full swing. Almost 400 players are signed up for action in the Minden Minor Baseball League, filling the fields with fun each Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. The adult lob-ball league occupies the diamonds on Wednesdays while Fridays Saturdays and Sundays are for the more competitive leagues.

Nine HHSS athletes OFSAA bound

Nine athletes from Haliburton Highlands Secondary School qualified for the OFSAA Track and Field Championships, which were held in Kitchener this past weekend. The final hurdle on the way to OFSAA was the Eastern Ontario Regional Track and Field Meet at Grenville Christian College in Brockville on May 27.

The top four athletes in each event at the regional meet advanced to the highest level of high school competition.

Mike Bradley finished in the top four of three events in the midget boys division. He was fourth in both the 100 and 200 metre events and first in the pole vault.

Chris Greenfield will compete in two senior boys events. He placed third in the 200 metres and second in the 400 metres.

Joey Noel advanced to OFSAA with a third place finish in the midget boys pole vault.

In the junior boys division, Travis Willison will represent Haliburton in the pole vault with a third place finish in Brockville.

Endres Weber placed third in the pole vault in the senior boys class for a shot at the all-Ontario event. He also placed sixth in the javelin event.

A third place finish in the senior boys 4X100 relay at the regional meet sent Chris Greenfield, Jay Hughes, Andy Bacon and Peter Van Leeuwen to OFSAA.

Jess Wallace was the only girl from HHSS to qualify for the all-Ontario championships. She placed fourth in the discus at the regional meet.

Four other HHSS athletes recorded respectable results at the regional meet, placing in the top six among the regional competitors.

Peter Brohman was fifth in the junior boys discus; Bobbi Griffin was sixth in the junior girls discus; Craig Mann placed fifth in the senior boys discus; and Anna Tomlinson was fifth in the long jump and sixth in the triple jump.

Haliburton is at the north-west corner of the Eastern Ontario Region, which extends south to the shore of Lake Ontario and east to the Quebec border.

Muskies Canada to hold fishing weekend on Kashagawigamog Lake June 11 and 12

by Jerry Grozelle

The Toronto chapter of Muskies Canada will be holding a muskie fishing "outing" on Kashagawigamog Lake this weekend. Jane Church of the Toronto chapter says they don't like to call them tournaments or derbies because those names aren't always associated with the live-release concept.

The event will be based at Birch Point Lodge on the south shore of the lake Saturday and Sunday. Registration will take place at the lodge Friday evening. Muskies Canada members will pay $5 to enter and non-members pay $10.

The event is open to non-members of Muskies Canada as well as members and wherever possible, a non-member will be paired up with a member for the fishing.

This is not a tournament where winners receive cash prizes. These anglers will be vying for trophies.

The purpose of the event is to promote Muskies Canada, live-release muskie fishing and to raise money for the Toronto chapter.

"It's a fun thing," Church said. "We like to try a different lake each year."

She added that the organization was considering either Kashagawigamog or Rice Lake, south of Peterborough for the 1994 event.

A couple of factors influenced the decision to have the event on Kashagawigamog. Dennis Casey, owner of Birch Point Lodge, learned that the Toronto chapter of Muskies Canada was interested in the lake for the 1994 event through his connections with the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce. As a director of the chamber, he saw the opportunity to promote the lake's excellent muskie fishery and as a lodge owner he saw a business opportunity.

Casey contacted the organizers, went to Toronto and gave them his best sales pitch and the next day they called to confirm their intentions to hold the event at Birch Point Lodge.

Casey gives credit to Rocky Crawford for helping to sway the decision in favour of the Haliburton County venue. Crawford conducts guided muskie fishing excursions from the lodge, which attests to the quality of the muskie fishing on the lake.

Anglers will take to the water from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday in search of a behemoth muskellunge.

Total size will determine the winner of the event. It may not be the actual biggest fish that earns its captor the first-place hardware. If someone is fortunate or skillful enough to catch two or three fish over the course of the two-day event, he or she could edge out someone with a larger single fish.

Each legal fish (minimum of 34 inches in length) that is caught will have its length and girth measured. A formula is used to estimate the weight and the highest total weight caught by one competitor over the weekend wins.

Competitors and organizers will gather at the lodge Saturday evening for a buffet style dinner, with raffles and 50/50 draw.

Awards presentations will be held Sunday afternoon.

Anyone interested in signing up for the competition should contact Dennis Casey at 457-2717.

Lunker lunge: Competitors will be trying to catch fish like this one during the Toronto Chapter of Muskies Canada fishing weekend based at Birch Point Lodge on Kashagawigamog Lake this weekend.

Peewee A Royals down Bobcaygeon, bow to Haliburton

by Jerry Grozelle

The Minden Ridgewood Ford peewee A Royals baseball team romped to an 11-0 victory over Bobcaygeon on May 29 in Minden. But they ended up on the short end of an 8-6 score when they tangled with Haliburton in West Guilford two days later.

Nick Kulas led the offense for the Royals against Bobcaygeon. He hit a double and two singles and crossed the plate with three runs.

Gaten Davis also scored three runs for the Ridgewood squad. He hit one single in the game.

Adam Durkin contributed to the Minden cause with a single, a double and one run scored.

Cameron Nevill had a pair of singles and one run scored.

Ryan Dawson hit the long ball of the day for the Royals with a triple. He also scored one run.

Mark Mattsson hit a single and scored one run and Blaine Saunders walked twice, scoring one run.

Six Minden pitchers had a turn on the mound, combining to pitch the shutout. Danny Jordan, Jarret Rowden, Ryan Dawson, Mark Mattsson, Gaten Davies and Cam Nevill shared the pitching duties.

Bobcaygeon managed only one hit in the game and the runner never made it to second base because the next batter hit into a double play. "The boys played extremely well," said coach John Mattsson.

It was a slightly different story against Haliburton.

"It was a well played game," Mattsson said. "But we made a few mental and physical errors that led to the Haliburton win."

Minden outthit Haliburton 11-8 but in spite of the Royals' strong offensive effort, the Haliburton boys were able to capitalize on the errors to grab the win.

Haliburton led 1-0 after one inning but Minden rebounded with two in the second frame to take over the lead. Haliburton leap-frogged ahead with two unanswered runs in the third. The Royals regained the lead with two runs in the top of the fourth but Haliburton sent two runs across the plate in the home half of the fourth to jump in front by a 5-4 count.

The inning that made the difference for the Haliburton boys was the fifth, when they scored three runs for an 8-4 lead. The Royals chipped away at the lead with one in the sixth and one more in the seventh to end it at 8-6.

Davies scored three runs on two singles and a double in the losing cause. Mattsson added one run to Minden's tally and had two hits to his credit. Richard Brohm and Josh Belcher each had a single and one run scored. Kulas hit two doubles and Durkin hit a pair of singles.

Coach hopes new strategy will lead to change in fortune for Pee wee Bs

by Jerry Grozelle

A 9-7 loss to Coboconk in Minden on May 29 sparked some changes to the batting order for the Minden Royals pee wee B hardball team.

"We shouldn't have lost it," said Minden coach Larry McKnight. "It was a hard fought battle."

But the team, and the coach, learned from the loss.

"A few strategy changes had to be made," the coach admitted.

The following evening the Royals were in Cambray for a game against their counterparts there.

The changes McKnight made had an immediate impact. The two teams played a total of four innings, and the Minden boys came home with a lopsided 20-4 victory.

"I think they were out to exact a measure of vengeance for the loss the day before," McKnight said.

The league imposes a five-run per inning mercy rule. Once a team scores five runs in an inning, it gives up its turn at bat and takes to the field. Minden scored the maximum in each of the four frames.

McKnight is happy with the batting order shift.

"Now, when we get somebody on base, we have the strength to bring them in," he said. "It's a more balanced order."

Everybody on the team contributed to the win in Cambray and it became evident early that Cambray was in trouble.

Aiden McKnight was the first at bat for the Royals. He drew a walk. Johnathan Swinson was next to the plate and he hit an inside-the-park home run for a pair of RBIs to set the tone of the game.

A combination of errors by the Cambray boys, some timely power hitting by the Royals and some excellent pitching by Johnathan Swinson and Jarret Aggett led to the Minden win.

Darren Gilbert, Adam Payne and Shawn Martin were singled out by the coach for their prowess at the plate, although he added that everybody was hitting well. Payne drove in two runs in the second inning.

"The restructured batting order seems to be working," coach McKnight said.

Two nights later the Royals had a chance to test the changes again. This time they went to Bobcaygeon for the game.

With the 8 p.m. curfew fast approaching and Minden leading the host team by an 18-5 count, the umpires convinced the Bobcaygeon coach to throw in the towel.

"We had some good hitting again," McKnight said. "Everybody was hitting."

Once again Swinson and Aggett teamed up on the mound to keep the Bobcaygeon damage to a minimum.

The Minden infield came up with a solid defensive effort. First-baseman Andy Graham saw a lot of action. Aiden McKnight at second, Adam Payne at third and short stop Gary Kernohan were able to handle almost everything that the Bobcaygeon boys managed to get the bat on.

Catchers Shawn Casey and Gord McDougall were both solid behind the plate as well, according to the coach.

After allowing a couple of walks and a hit that brought three Bobcaygeon runs across the plate in what proved to be the final frame, Shawn Martin made a good catch in the outfield to get the first out. Aggett fanned the next batter for the second out and Darren Gilbert made an excellent running catch to end any hopes Bobcaygeon had of making a come-back.

The inning before that saw Minden centre fielder Jordan Osinchuck make a timely catch to stem another Bobcaygeon threat.

Only a couple of Bobcaygeon bloopers dropped in the gap for hits.

The Royals were scheduled for their usual Sunday game yesterday (against Cameron). Their next game is slated for Thursday evening in Cameron, starting at 6:30. Their next home game will be this coming Sunday at 2 p.m., with Ops providing the opposition.

Lake levels continue to climb

The Haliburton Lakes continued to rise reaching 93.8 per cent on May 26. Much of the effects of the heavy rain that day were not yet reflected in the levels, so most lakes will probably be getting close to the normal levels for the time of year.

The recent three or four weeks of wet weather, in contrast to the preceding weeks and months of less than normal precipitation, has resulted in a return to nearly normal lake levels and some higher than normal flows. Lake Simcoe-Couchiching, as a result, has finally filled to near its normal late spring surplus condition.

Along the rest of the canal route a caution has been issued again that velocities are swift and navigation, though still open, could be closed if the flow conditions worsen.

Women's Institute told of shelter needs in Lindsay

by Mary MacMaster

The Victoria East District Women's Institute's 94th annual meeting was held in Fenelon Falls United Church hall on Wednesday, May 25.

Present were representatives from the Blythe, Burnt River, Bury's Green, Fenelon Falls, Lakeview, Minden, Norland, Pleasant Valley and Powles Corner branches.

Our hostess branch was Bury's Green and president Eleanor Crane lead the meeting which opened with The Ode, Mary Stewart Collect and The Lord's Prayer.

Guests present were Viola Ashton and Marjorie Prescott (Provincial Board). Also Madeline Curtin and Eunice Pike from Victoria West District WI.

Reports from the various officers of the previous year's events were presented, followed by a very informative talk by Mrs. Viola Ashton regarding the events taking place at the Provincial level.

Our next speaker was Ms. Carol Alderton from Women's Resources in Lindsay who explained the housing counselling and help available to battered women and their children in this area. She also explained the need for donations of bedding and clothing to the store they operate to help these people.

After the singing of the Institute grace, a delicious (and fattening) lunch was enjoyed and after lunch we viewed the display of centennial pins, mugs, cards, etc.

The afternoon session opened with Hymn of All Nations followed by a flower memorial service for the members who passed away last year. Fenelon Falls WI will host the 95th annual and invites all branches to attend.

New business was next and discussions of ways to raise funds were top of the list, i.e. Big Buck Euchre in October.

Entertainment was provided by a very courageous lady, country singer Ms. Lucy Grogan and was composed of a varied selection of favourites. Lastly we had the election of officers for the coming year.

THOUGHT OF THE DAY
The shortest distance between two points is under construction.

Thank You!

Saturday, June 4 marked the 15th anniversary of our ownership of The Times.

During that time, the newspaper and our various publications have grown with the community. The success of The Times is due in large measure to our faithful and growing readership, our advertisers and the hard-working, dedicated staff, especially Susan, who has been with us from day one. Thank you, everyone, for your continuing support of The Times.

Jack and Pat Brezina

Through Thick and Thin

When we published our first edition of The Times, June 6, 1979, Dollo's IGA grocery store advertisement was on the back page. Fifteen years and 780 editions later, it is still there. All of our advertisers are important to us, but we cannot allow this anniversary to pass without expressing our special thanks to Pete and David Dollo at our local IGA for the important role they have played in the life of The Times.

People Who Make a Difference

Our readers know them as the writers of two weekly columns, but we discovered another side to Jean and Jeanne

They're witty, they're smart, they're a barrel full of laughs, they're best of friends, and together they make an enormous difference in the community. No, we're not talking about Betty and Wilma from the Flintstones, we're talking about Jean Lacey and Jeanne Sears. And although they're reluctant to admit it, both make a big contribution to our community.

"There's nothing much to tell about me. I'm not a very important person," claims Jean.

But through the modesty, both women will tell of their amazing accomplishments in life. Jean is the president of the Women's Institute, and is the vice president of the Women's Institute for the District. She is the president of the Anglican Church Women at St. Paul's church and is on the advisory board at the church. She is a greeter and welcomes people as they come into the church on certain Sundays. She is the treasurer of the Parkside Social Club, is a life member of the Lions club, and a charter member of the Lioness club. She is a former member of the agricultural society, but she quit because "there aren't enough nights in the week for everything."

Jean was born in Montreal and French is her mother tongue, but she lost touch with the language when her family moved to Toronto when she was three.

She watches "a little" TV, mostly Star Trek The Next Generation. "I love Star Trek and I hate to miss that program. I used to like the old Star Trek until I saw the new ones. I'm an outer-space fan. I love all of the Star Wars movies too," said Jean.

She lives in a small one-bedroom apartment with her bird Mister. "I wish I had a two-bedroom apartment so I could use the extra room for all of my junk. My bedroom gets to be a catch-all," she said.

by Kelly Pettinger

When asked what she thinks of her best friend, Jean replies, "Jeanne is a great friend. We go places together sometimes. She is a lot of fun. She's very loving and very generous. She cares about people. I don't know what I'd do without her. I know I can call on her anytime of the day and she'll be there. She's just around the corner," Jean said.

Jeanne is also a busy lady. Years ago she worked in the summer, cleaning cottages. She then moved on to writing for the Haliburton Echo, then the Progress, the forerunner to The Times and she also wrote articles for the Lindsay Post. "Back then we got paid so much an inch. I think it was five cents an inch. So we tried to add as many words as we could."

She joined the Women's Institute in 1949. She plays cards at least three days out of the week. Being in charge of the cribbage games held on Fridays and the euchre games on Saturdays in the winter, it is easy to become hooked on the card table fun. Another game Jeanne loves to play all season is bingo. "Sometimes I break even."

Her daily exercise involves walking and shuffleboard. In her spare time Jeanne reads all sort of books, "except westerns. I don't like them very much. But I do love reading; sometimes I read myself to sleep." If you walk into her apartment you will be dazzled with the huge collection of miniature bears. Her collection of over 150 miniatures also includes a giraffe, a dog, a horse and an owl. And with all of that, she somehow finds time for knitting, crocheting, and other handicrafts.

Born in Woodvale and raised in Stouffville, Jeanne attended school in Toronto for one year, taught for a year and then quit before she married. "At that time teachers (women) usually gave up their positions when they got married," she said.

She moved to Minden "right after the war," in 1946. But even though she has been living in Minden for 48 years, she still calls herself an import. "If you weren't born here, you'll never be a 'local'," said Sears.

It is obvious Jeanne loves Jean as a friend and companion. "When you see her you just want to hug her. Being around her is like a big hug. She is a wonderful friend. There have been times when I thought I would lose her. One time she phoned me and said she was not well. Her heart is weak. I stayed with her and kept her talking and alert. I'm a stayer. I can take a lot, and I can give a lot. It was a pretty scary time," said Jeanne.

Jeanne also helped Jean cope when she was diagnosed with cancer of the eye. Ever since her recovery Jean has been on the go, not letting anything, including her reduced vision, slow her down.

The two women met about 12 years ago through the libraries they worked for. Jeanne worked at the Minden Library and Jean worked at Lutterworth. Their husbands were good friends and the couples often shared activities and outings.

But tragedy struck five years ago when both husbands died within months of each other. They became closer friends when they moved to Parkside that year. They needed each other and helped each other through the bad times. "Our friendship evolved at that time," said Jean.

Jeanne admits she moved to Parkside because she didn't want to be alone. She made the right decision because it is pretty hard to feel alone at Parkside when there is a club to join that has a pot luck every month, coffee break every Friday, cards every week, occasional outings to the show and dinner, and functions to help raise money for their adopted child in Bolivia.

Two green thumbs up on gardening

-submitted-

In spite of a late spring, gardeners are up and at it, cleaning, tilling, and planting. They never give up and are determined to make the best of conditions, come what may.

Onions, peas, lettuce and radishes are on the early list and already they are appearing in the gardens. Sorry to say, some tomato plants were nipped with recent frost, having been planted too early.

The petunias and pansies looked quite comfy in their blankets of snow last week, but survived the ordeal.

Local horticulturists will soon be planting the barrels and flower beds around the village.

Earth Day was celebrated when horticulture society members held a "Bee" at the circle bed near the Minden golf course, cleaning, pruning, weeding, and tilling. This greatly improved its appearance.

Four members attended the design work-shop in Omeme which took place in mid-May and was headed by Alma Gomme of Agincourt. The work-shop proved valuable and informative.

Four members will be attending the OHA convention in St. Catharines in mid-June.

It was with great sadness that we learned of Jim Trotter's death last weekend. Well known and highly respected, Jim, of Hastings, was our district director for some time and his loss will be felt by our society. Last June he reached the peak when he was installed as president for all of Ontario in the OHA and was to have presided at this year's convention. Minden was represented at the funeral in Port Hope by Illa Cooper and Verne Graham.

The Juniors have had their first meeting, which turned out to be disastrous weather-wise, but they all pitched in with enthusiasm in talking, planning and planting. They are looking forward to the June meeting, but there is still room for additional members. The third Monday of each month, the group meets at Illa Cooper's or Anne Neave's.

We are looking forward to our bus trip to Wye Marsh and Ste. Marie on June 28. Come along and enjoy this trip to the Midland area. Tickets are going fast. Phone Lyn Hancock and sign up (286-3242).

We now have a membership drive on the go. The membership fee is $3 per year. This helps us greatly in our work. We welcome new members and are always happy to have their attendance at our meetings. Even if you can't attend our meetings, the purchase of a membership card would be greatly appreciated.

June 7 will be our next meeting at the Jamieson Gallery. At 6 p.m. we will have a plant sale. The meeting will follow at 7:30, the guest speaker for which will be Mrs. Walford-Davis, who will be speaking about antique glass and arranging. Do come! There will be draws, and yummy refreshments. Don't miss this one!

Our flower show committee has great plans for this year's show entitled "A Floral Extravaganza". The prize lists are ready, so read them and get ready to participate in the show on August 11 and 12 in the Minden community centre.

Our July 5 meeting will bring Pat Campbell to give us tips and ideas for flower arranging. This should be a big help for all prior to flower show time.

Mexican fun day adds a dash of spice to the week

by Winnifred Barnum

Another week has gone by and it still does not look much like spring. Estella Birch came this afternoon to read to us. We truly thank her.

Rev. John Burgess held the Sunday night chapel service for us, and Ruth Worthington played the organ. Jack Worthington led a short hymn-along. It was a very informative service. We thank you John and Ruth truly. There were several visitors at chapel.

May 22 we congratulated Jean Taylor on her birthday and wished her many happy returns of the day.

Monday afternoon we had Dianne Garbutt to entertain us with piano music. She has completed her study of piano and will be teaching this summer but is going back to school in London this fall. We enjoyed the music and thank her very much.

Tuesday morning chapel service was held by Pastor Murray from Allsaw. Thank you Pastor Murray.

In the evening Corinne was sick, so Pearl Cowen came to help us play a couple of games of euchre.

Wednesday we had a choice of Canadian food or Chinese. Doris took a bus load of residents to Mark's Restaurant for lunch. There were over 20 counting the volunteers, who were Pearl Cowen, Dottie Muirhead, and Mable Deacon. Thank you ladies. We enjoyed the lunch very much. When we finished our lunch, we loaded the bus and went to Kawartha Dairy for ice cream cones. Dottie Muirhead generously paid for our ice cream. Thank you Dottie and all the others who helped.

Birthdays in May were Lucille Clarke, Alice Rivers, Beatrice Britain, Jean Taylor, Corinne Bonneville, Beatrice Tustin, Michael Cain, Lorne Fry and Marshall Harrison.

Thursday being tea party day, the Lioness ladies provided the delicious lunch as well as a beautiful birthday cake. There was a table full of birthday people present. They were Alice Rivers, Jean Taylor, Beatrice Britain, Beatrice Tustin, Corinne Bonneville, Michael Cain, and Marshall Harrison. The ladies were Joyce Wright, Georgina Kernohan, and Dorothy Boyd who provided the lunch and served it. Pat Scott came to help Linda with the residents. We thank all the ladies for giving us a happy afternoon.

Thursday evening we had Bingo in the tuck shop. Kathy Woods called the Bingo for us. Kathy is now taking three months of holidays. Thanks for all your help, we look forward to having you back in September. Dorie and Tom McAllister will be on deck to call Bingo for us for the summer. We look forward to having them.

Friday was Mexican Fun Day. The festivities began with a delicious lunch composed of Mexican dishes. The tables were set up around the perimeter of the auditorium and looked lovely. The food arrived buffet style and was set down the centre of the room. The Hyland Crest staff served the residents from there. The residents and staff were mostly dressed in Mexican clothes. It was a gala sight.

At two o'clock, Don Burch and Eldon Deacon came to entertain us with singing and guitar music. The volunteers were Don Holden, Mary Guillemine, and Dottie Muirhead. The residents had made a pinaata from newspapers stuck together to form a large ball. This was hung from the ceiling. It was full of an assortment of many things. To open it, it was struck with sticks. It was made so well they could hardly break it. When they did, it was a wild scramble. Other entertainment was a bull fight monologue by Mrs. Doris Brown. Doris Robertson, Don and Eldon played and sang some lovely old songs. You did a good job boys, and we sincerely thank you.

We also wish to thank all the staff members for being so kind and helpful and a special thank you to the organizers.

A special thank you to Rick and Kim Tustin from the Red Umbrella Inn, for lending us the chafing dishes for the Mexican buffet. Gracias!

Grandma's Quilt

The quilt of many colours that grandma made for me, she planned out the pattern while we drank afternoon tea.

Many stitches went into it, with loving care she made the pieces fit.

She took great pains to roll it tight, so she could work the tiny pieces just right.

The ladies gathered for a quilting bee, and the chance to chit chat, you see.

The array of pretty colours so pleasing to the sight, brought back memories of my favourite dress so bright.

*My cosy flannelette sheet was the backing of the quilt,
I must admit I gave up with some guilt.*

*After many hours of work and sore fingers,
Under my nice warm Quilt I love to linger.*

*And every time I get into bed,
I picture my grandma with bended head.*

by Lillian Davidson, Nora Groves and Annie Schultz (with helpful suggestions from two auxiliary ladies).

HYLANDCRESTPOETS'CORNER

Walkers clock 1,000 miles

Twenty walkers walking for their health hiked more than 1,000 miles in the halls of Archie Stouffer Elementary School this past winter. If they'd been walking a relay marathon, their feet would have taken them to Atlanta Georgia.

The champion walker was Vera Bagshaw whose legs carried her almost 200 miles between November and early May. She and the others arrived with the caretakers at 7:30 a.m., then walked until the students began arriving.

Others who crossed the 100 mile mark were Denzil Cox at 154 miles, Harry Earle at 132.5 miles, and Morris Duff at 107 miles. Estella Burch did 65 and Ruth Gorrie 63.

A lap of Archie Stouffer is 450 metres, including a flight of stairs in the original school house. Walkers recorded the number of laps they did each day.

The Minden section of the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario organized the dawn walks. Walking is considered the best exercise to strengthen the heart, a muscle which needs exercise.

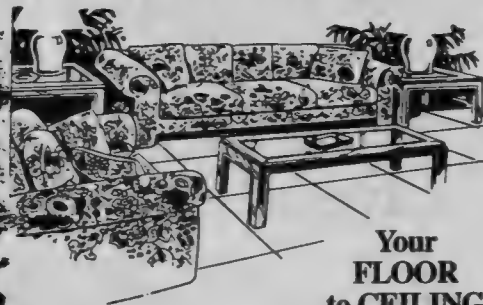

Walking will begin at the school again next fall. Others wishing to join are welcome. A similar group walks at the high school in Haliburton.

Hazardous boating on Trent

The Trent-Severn Waterway advises that further rainfall has again raised water levels and increased flows at many locations within the Waterway corridor, most notably the Otonabee and Trent River sections of the system.

The Superintendent of the Trent-Severn Waterway cautions that boaters should exercise care when out on the water. Navigation buoys may be out of position or partially submerged, floating debris has been reported and areas above and below water control dams should be avoided due to strong currents.

If conditions worsen in the next few days, closure of navigation may be required.

New board elected to 3-year term

As some of you may know, CHACE publishes a quarterly newsletter featuring craft ideas, child care and parenting ideas, events happening in our centres, etc. Our most recent edition (May '94) focused on the spirit of giving and our very own giving community.

In keeping with this theme, we are thrilled to report that our program recovery campaign has once again been a huge success. What is even more exciting is that more than 80 per cent of this year's contributors are repeat donors. From all of us at CHACE, particularly our children, we extend a warm thank-you to the following businesses and individuals: Financial Concept Group; Haliburton Veterinary Services; Haliburton Lumber; Highland Stoneworks; Curry Motors; Rodco Enterprises; Shawn Hagerman Insurance; Master's Book Store; Robert-Austin Fuels; Dawson Insurance Brokers; Ray Selbie; Highlander GRS Club; Family Medical Centre; Gord and Donna Monk; Royal Canadian Legion Auxiliary, Branch 636; Minden Home Hardware; Dollo's IGA; Minden IDA; Northernways Transit; Sid Stamp Fuels; Village Donuts and Family Restaurant, and two anonymous donors.

Collectively, these people have contributed more than $2,500 toby mid-June the mobile outreach program will be embarking on a staggered start, to the communities of Wilberforce, Highland Grove, Haliburton, Minden, Gooderham and Fort Irwin. July is the target for a full launch.

CHACE Inc.
by Sue Valm, Executive Director towards the cost of all the art and programming supplies for CHACE's two resource centres. Although we are almost $500 shy of our goal, we trust that we will secure three more Minden area businesses to complete our target.

Another encouraging example of our giving community was evident at our recent Annual General Meeting where seven of our 11 existing Board Members committed themselves to a second three-year term. This dedication to CHACE translates into wonderful consistency for our staff and families alike. The energy given by our board and committee volunteers is considerable and much appreciated. Our warmest thanks are extended to the 1994-95 CHACE board of directors: Gord Shakelaar, Laurie Brown, Andrea Rovers, Jude King, Elaine Muenzel, Russ Duhaime, Kirsti Reynolds, Heather Valentine, Lynda Porter, Frances Marshall and Darlene Box.

Have you seen the brightly painted cube van for our new Mobile Family Outreach Program, co-sponsored by SIRCH? We are all so thrilled with it. We have had it strategically parked, hoping to generate enthusiasm and anticipation while our newly hired staff (Rosemarie Jung, Julie Pearson and Lisa Heels) have been working hard at determining and ordering all the toys and equipment to be used in the program, establishing connections and facilities for our 15 stops, developing programming content, organizing promotional material, etc. We are delighted to report that by mid-June we will be embarking on a staggered start to the communities of Wilberforce, Highland Grove, Haliburton, Minden, Gooderham and Fort Irwin to name a few and have established July as our target for a full launch. Watch for our announcements in the papers and your neighbourhood for exact times and dates.

For information on our Mobile or any of CHACE's child care resource centres programs, please call us at 457-2989.

Peddling hot dogs helps teen pay rising tuition fees

Damon Smith has been given the green light by Anson, Hindon and Minden Council to set up an outdoor hot dog stand at Dollo's IGA in Minden.

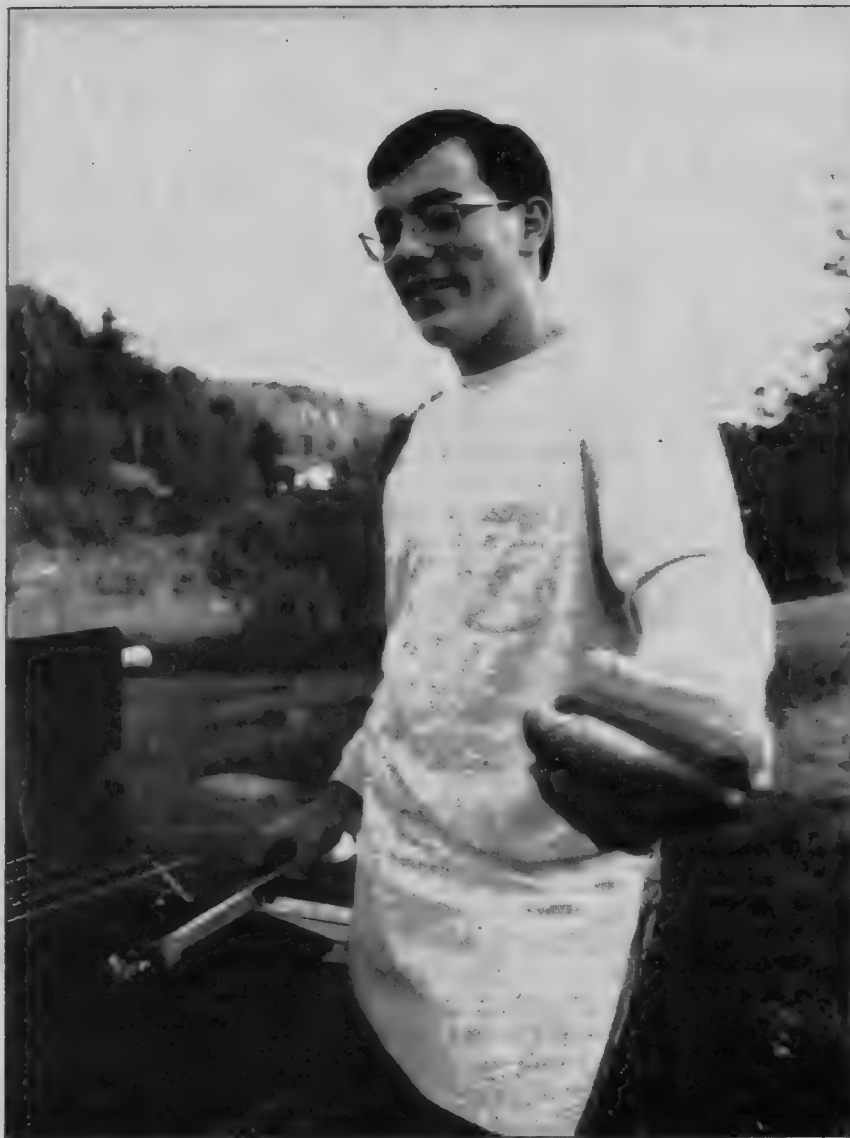

Smith appealed to Council, at last week's meeting, for a permit to operate the stand to earn money for university. The HHSS student received permission from the grocery store but he was told that his proposed operation was subject to a $500 license fee. That fee applies to food vendors who operate from a vehicle, such as chip trucks. Council decided that since no vehicle was involved, Smith will be granted a license, provided he first obtains approval from the Health Unit. The license fee will be $150.

Smith decided in March, after taking an entrepreneur course, that he wanted to sell some sort of product at his own stand. He first thought of selling funnel cakes, or waffles. He decided on hot dogs simply because they are inexpensive and popular.

Damon has always had a business outlook. Along with his new business, Smith also cuts lawns and sells home-assembly items. He is trying to save enough to pay for his university tuition.

Smith is saving his money so he doesn't have to pay back loans when he is finished his post-secondary education. "I don't want to get through on loans. I want to get through university without owing anything, then get out and buy a house and a car," he said.

In his presentation to Council, Smith said that he wasn't trying to compete with the restaurant trade in Minden.

Hot Diggety Dog! Damon Smith is looking forward to a busy summer with his own business located outside Dollo's IGA. The student hopes to pay his tuition fees with the earnings from this venture.

"My target market is not people who sit down for a meal," Smith said. "Hot dogs are a snack food."

Approaching Council was the final step in Smith's strategy. He said he already had the accounting worked out and had made arrangements with the grocery store owner for a place to set up shop.

Responding to Councillor Jeanne Anthon's question whether Dollo's will continue to run its charity barbecues, Smith said he would close down his operation while the charity events were being held.

Smith said that he would be creating a job for himself and another part time helper as well as leaving an opening at the IGA for someone else. He hopes he will make the same amount of money, if not more as he would working a 40 hour week at IGA.

The hotdog stand will be open on weekends for most of June, then everyday, except Sundays, until September.

Modern-day Tarzan plans swim to save the Amazon River

He swaggered into the room like some kind of Latin Crocodile Dundee. Clad only in shorts, he wore a huge knife on his belt, a jaguar's tooth around his neck and jet black hair to his shoulders. With massive shoulders resembling a water buffalo and looking like an aging Johnny Weissmuller, Kapax has understandably been labelled "Tarzan of the Amazon" by the press.

Forty-eight years ago, Kapax was born to a German father and a native mother in the Andes mountains. Two decades ago, he moved to the tiny frontier town of Leticia in Colombia right next to its Brazilian counterpart, Tabatinga. Here people move freely between the two countries without passing guards or fences. These are the western headwaters of the Amazon and the wide, swift flowing river dominates life here as the source of food, recreation and transportation.

Kapax makes a living as a tour guide and he certainly looks the part. When he first approached me, I was rather put off by what seemed to me an affectation of style and attire. But as I listened to him and realized his sincerity and heard the passion of his commitment, I became caught up in his vision.

The rivers and the forest are Kapax's obsession. In 1976, he became a hero to Latin Americans when he swam down the Magdalena River from Neiva to Barranquilla on the Caribbean Sea, a distance of 1,300 kilometers.

His aim was to bring attention to the terrible state of pollution of the river and destruction of the surrounding forest. This was long before the fate of tropical rainforests had become a popular global issue.

Kapax is also an ardent supporter of indigenous people. He points out that they cut down the forest and kill animals to sell because it has become a way for them

"We need to tell the world that the destruction of the Amazon forest is closer than ever."

Reflections

by David Suzuki

to survive.

Kapax wants to bring them a message that they can keep the forest intact by rediscovering traditional ways of making a living along the river: "If the children do not have a conscience to preserve the Amazon, their future will be in danger," he told me.

"We need to tell the world that the destruction of the Amazon forest is closer than ever," he says. Kapax's message has power because it is so simple and obvious. He doesn't base his appeal on a sophisticated reasoning about the need to protect biodiversity.

Instead, he points out that the Amazon, as the largest river in the world, concentrates a fifth of the planet's freshwater and for that reason alone, deserves respect.

As a calling card, he handed me a sheet with this message:

When the last river is all contaminated,

When the last tree is cut down,

When the last animal is dead,

When we are totally lacking oxygen,

We will know we have lost a great opportunity.

The world will not end,

But we are polluting and degrading it,

And we are responsible.

Now Kapax is proposing a dramatic new stunt to attract attention to the deteriorating state of the river from the three governments of Peru, Colombia and Brazil.

He wants to swim from Iquitos in Peru to Manaus in Brazil where the Amazon joins the Rio Negro, 2,200 kilometers away. On his way down the river, he intends to stop at villages where he will take his message about the life-giving force of the river and the need to ensure its protection. "I want to use my popularity to defend the Amazon," he says.

He conjured up in me an almost mythic picture of a huge hulk of a man emerging from the river to tell village people about what he has seen and to warn them of what is to come if they don't change their ways. It is the kind of thing that the international media could turn into a major spectacle.

I had swum in the swift waters near Leticia the day before I met Kapax. The current was swift and threatening with its undertow and whirlpools. Swimming as hard as I could, I was barely able to stay in the same place.

Out in the middle of the river, its power was awesome as we swept through ominous rapids. Dredging up visions of piranhas, crocodiles and parasites, to say nothing of the sheer force of the waters, I asked Kapax what dangers his proposed venture would hold. He answered: "Only human created ones. There is nothing in Nature that I fear."

This is not an adventure that can be embarked on lightly. It requires an experienced person who is in superb physical and psychological condition. I couldn't help but feel inspired by Kapax's commitment and hope he is the one to do it.

Council service requires commitment

by John Huke
Somerville Township Reeve

Reducing the size of school boards and county council will, on the surface, reduce costs. The savings created will be very small in relation to the total budgets involved.

In Victoria County, for example, the entire remuneration cost of county councillors, including the Warden's $50,000 remuneration, is about one quarter of one per cent of the total county budget. To attend a one-day county council or committee meeting, a councillor receives $100. Most members will tell you that to attend and be active on county business does cost money.

To delete the Deputy Reeves and lower the total number of members will, however, create a situation of fewer councillors sharing in a greater portion of the decision-making process. It will create a situation for those people seeking municipal offices as Reeve to understand that they are now taking on a responsibility requiring their full-time attention and dedication.

As Reeve, I attend 32 regular county meetings, plus additional unscheduled meetings. I personally attended 192 meetings and functions representing the township and county in 1993. I was paid a per diem for 1992, county and township combined.

The Private Member's Bill currently being considered to lower the number of members sitting on Victoria County Council will obviously increase the work load. The main purpose is not to lower costs directly, but to have a more informed and active council.

Yes, those seeking office in November's municipal elections must ask themselves: Do I have the time? Do I have the commitment? Can I afford the loss of income?

I do not believe the answer to a more efficient county government is a regional or county-wide government. We can, however, amalgamate some of the less populated townships.

Many small municipalities presently, and in the immediate future, are going to be in a position of not having enough revenues to carry on the very basic services, such as road grading, snow removal, parks maintenance and recreation programs, to name only a few. Combining townships would increase the population, creating a larger tax base for the municipality's budget process.

The issue of crossing both county and township borders must also be considered as an important concern when and if changes are to be considered. Coboconk is an example of a river being the border between Somerville and Bexley Townships.

Kinmount is divided by a street. Not only is it on the border of Somerville and Galway/Cavendish townships, but is also on the border of Peterborough and Victoria Counties. To the taxpayer, it is must be confusing as to which jurisdiction delivers what if any services in their area.

We have heard that the Fire Marshal's Office is presently attempting to have the Municipal Act changed, making it mandatory for all municipalities to provide fire protection services. They would have to organize their own fire departments or rent from their neighbours. Unfortunately, because of downloading by the province and Ottawa, many townships are finding it difficult to keep providing services for their neighbours, not only because of costs, but also because of a lack of volunteers.

All Canadians, during their lives, should attempt to seek municipal office in order to have a greater understanding of the complexities with which local councillors must wrestle each and every time they sit at the council table.

Many older and more experienced county reeves have told me they are no longer enjoying the present municipal political scene due to the downloading and lack of funding. Some will leave office without running again.

We can only hope that those seeking office will understand the responsibility they will accept when being sworn in on Dec. 1.

Be wary of high-pressure sales

Beware of high pressure sales tactics, Coboconk OPP warns.

The Coby Detachment of the OPP has received a complaint of high-pressure sales tactics on senior citizens.

At least one instance of the high-pressure sales pitch resulted in a widow in her 80's buying a vacuum cleaner at an inflated price, police report.

Senior Constable Dave Fletcher advises people to be wary of door-to-door salespeople who insist on completing a sale right away.

"If the price is good today, it should be good tomorrow, after you've had a chance to think it over," Fletcher said.

Fletcher says confidential information about financial status, banking or credit card numbers should never be given over the phone.

If you are not sure whether a company represented by a salesperson is honest or not, check with the Better Business Bureau, the local Chamber of Commerce or the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements of the Corporation (municipality) are the representation of management prepared in accordance with accounting policies prescribed for Ontario municipalities by the Ministry of Municipal Affairs. Since precise determination of many assets and liabilities is dependent upon future events, the preparation of periodic financial statements necessarily involves the use of estimates and approximations. These have been made using careful judgments.

(i) Basis of Consolidation

These consolidated statements reflect the assets, liabilities, sources of financing and expenditures of the revenue fund, capital fund, reserve funds and reserves and include the activities of all committees of Council and the following boards, municipal enterprises and utilities which are under the control of Council:

Minden Waterworks System
Minden Sewage System
Minden Business Improvement Area
Minden Cemetery Board

All interfund assets and liabilities and sources of financing and expenditures have been eliminated with the exception of loans or advances between reserve funds and any other fund of the municipality and the resulting interest income and expenditures.

(ii) Non-Consolidated Entities

There are no non-consolidated entities.

(iii) Accounting for County and School Board Transactions

The taxation, other revenues, expenditures, assets and liabilities with respect to the operations of the school board and the County of Haliburton are not reflected in the municipal fund balances of these financial statements. Overlevies (underlevies) are reported on the Consolidated Balance Sheet as "other current liabilities" ("other current assets").

The above data has been extracted from the audited Consolidated Financial Report of the Townships and the local boards as described in Note 1. Copies of the Consolidated Financial Report and the Report of our Auditor, Mr. Gary L. Thurston, Chartered Accountant, are available at the Townships' Offices to any resident who wishes to review or analyze the financial operations of the Townships in greater detail.

Residents of Hyland Crest celebrating birthdays in June include Winnifred Barnum on June 6, Lola Prentice June 11, Grace Coburn June 23, Elfrieda Brandt June 26, Ada Lewis June 27 and Harry Forbes on June 22. The community sends good wishes to all of them on their special day.

A reminder to parents of school age children to set aside a spot in your garden for carrots, potatoes and tomatoes so they will have produce to enter in the Junior Section of the 1994 Haliburton County Fair.

There was plenty of excitement at the Minden Museum Pioneer Complex last Wednesday in the early morning. The Simmerson Building and Movers easily transported the Hindon Hill Public School from Brady Lake and placed it on ties. This summer's project for the Museum Committee will be the block work that has to be done. The group is holding several events to raise funds for the restoration of the school including a luncheon during the Arts Festival on July 1 weekend and a yard sale on July 16 and of course, they are selling tickets on a Log Cabin Quilt. Your support would be much appreciated by the Museum Committee.

May Ralph from Peterborough visited with Dorothy McElwain and Audrey and Bob Vick last week.

We heard of so many people in the area who had their plants frozen with the recent bad spell of weather. Bessie B told me her 50 year old natural fern was done in. Guess we'll have to wait until June in future or make sure the tender plants are well protected.

Dale and Tyler Vick from Vandorf enjoyed their visit with Audrey and Bob Vick recently.

and finally we had an eclipse which was quite visible on that mostly sunny day. The average temperature was 1.4C (2.5F) lower than last May. The precipitation was about the same each month but we had snow this May.

IN MEMORIAM

BERGMAN: In loving memory of John who died June 7, 1975. For some we loved, the loveliest and best
That from his Vintage rolling
Time has prest,
Have drunk their Cup a Round
or two before,
And one by one crept silently to rest.
Still sorely missed by Patricia, Jennifer and Anne-Marie.

IN MEMORIAM

VOICEY: In loving memory of a wonderful Dad, Joe, who passed away June 10, 1982. Though his smile is gone forever,

And his hand we cannot touch
Still we have so many memories

Of the one we love so much.
His memory is a keepsake
With which we'll never part
God has him in His keeping
We have him in our hearts/
Lovingly remembered by Loreta, Dave, Audress, Don,
Sharon and families.

VOICEY: In loving memory of my dear husband, Joe, who passed away June 10, 1982. Gone are the days we used to share

But in my heart you are always there
Sweet are the memories that never fade
I love you more than tongue can tell

Our family cares for me well
And neighbours and friends are so good
So rest in peace my darling
Till we meet again.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his wife, Alice.
